The Greatest Fight in the World

C H Spurgeon

Based on 1 Timothy 6:12: "Fight the good fight of faith," this was C H Spurgeon's final address to the students at the Pastors' College in 1891. Identifying the great foes to be false doctrine, worldliness, and sin, he focuses on the Bible as our armoury, – the sole authority for believers in all things, – the Church as all being involved in the battle, and the Holy Spirit, upon whom we depend entirely for success in the warfare.

The preaching ministry of C H Spurgeon saw thousands converted and he also worked tirelessly to inspire preachers to be valiant for the truth through the Pastors' College. He knew much of the warfare of which he spoke; personal health challenges and his costly stand against doctrinal decline and compromise gave him insights which he shares here.

The clarion call to active service in The Greatest Fight in the World is as relevant today as when first delivered.

Inspiration & Interpretation

J W Burgon

The Bible has always been a focus for the attacks of the enemies of Truth. In these sermons, – a response to the emerging liberalism expressed in a book entitled Essays and Reviews, – Dean Burgon makes a stirring call to reject the new approach, which he identifies as cynical unbelief.

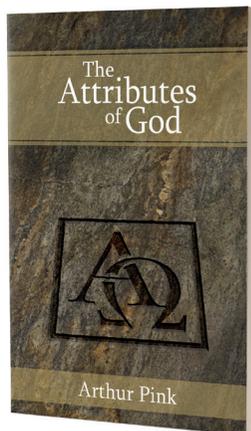

The same errors are being re-expressed today – even among professing evangelicals – and these sermons are therefore just as important now as when they were first delivered. More than ever, we need those who, like Burgon, are willing to affirm the unique nature of the Bible and its own self-consistent method for interpreting its message.

The Attributes of God

Arthur Pink

Pink's burden is to present the attributes of God in such a way as to enable us to know Him in an intelligent and feelingful way. He says himself: 'A spiritual and saving knowledge of God is the greatest need of every human creature.'

The definitive source for our information about God is the Bible. Each brief chapter is securely founded on the texts of Scripture, and Pink excels at unfolding these great truths in an accessible way.

The Precious Things of God

Octavius Winslow

This devotional classic reminds Christians of many of the things that are, or should be, precious to them. Beginning with the preciousness of Christ, Winslow conducts the reader through twelve themes – all calculated to warm the heart. This will be especially valuable to those undergoing trials.

Octavius Winslow (1808-1878) was a renowned evangelical minister in the 19th century. His prolific devotional writings have long been appreciated, always honouring Christ and inspiring a fervent spiritual life.

The Great Awakening

Joseph Tracy

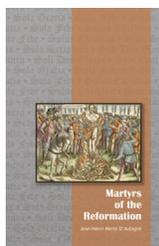

Joseph Tracy's careful research draws together all the available contemporary sources to give a fascinating insight into the events surrounding the awakening in New England in the eighteenth century. The immense roles played by Jonathan Edwards and George Whitefield are inevitably prominent, but all the others involved are also featured.

978-1-78872-045-8
464 pages, RRP £11.50

It is estimated that between twenty-five and fifty thousand were converted during this period, from the local revivals in the 1730's through the more extensive and widespread blessing of the early 1740's and beyond. Tracy does not shirk the need to examine the aberrations and excesses that marked the revival in some parts, nor the controversies that raged between the friends and foes of the revival. From these, important lessons may be learned even now by all those looking for significant blessing on their ministries.
