

Job 14

Chapter 14

<sup>1</sup> MAN that is born of a woman is of few days, and full of trouble.

<sup>2</sup> He cometh forth like a flower, and is cut down: he fleeth also as a shadow, and continueth not.

<sup>3</sup> And dost thou open thine eyes upon such an one, and bringest me into judgment with thee?

<sup>5</sup> Seeing his days are determined, the number of his months are with thee, thou hast appointed his bounds that he cannot pass;

<sup>6</sup> Turn from him, that he may rest, till he shall accomplish, as an hireling, his day.

<sup>7</sup> For there is hope of a tree, if it be cut down, that it will sprout again, and that the tender branch thereof will not cease.

<sup>8</sup> Though the root thereof wax old in the earth, and the stock thereof die in the ground;

<sup>9</sup> Yet through the scent of water it will bud, and bring forth boughs like a plant.

<sup>10</sup> But man dieth, and wasteth away: yea, man giveth up the ghost, and where is he?

<sup>11</sup> As the waters fail from the sea, and the flood decayeth and drieth up:

<sup>12</sup> So man lieth down, and riseth not: till the heavens be no more, they shall not awake, nor be raised out of their sleep.

<sup>13</sup> O that thou wouldest hide me in the grave, that thou wouldest keep me secret, until thy wrath be past, that thou wouldest appoint me a set time, and remember me!

<sup>14</sup> If a man die, shall he live again? all the days of my appointed time will I wait, till my change come.

<sup>15</sup> Thou shalt call, and I will answer thee: thou wilt have a desire to the work of thine hands.

<sup>16</sup> For now thou numberest my steps: dost thou not watch over my sin?

<sup>17</sup> My transgression is sealed up in a bag, and thou sewest up mine iniquity.

<sup>18</sup> And surely the mountain falling cometh to nought, and the rock is removed out of his place.

<sup>19</sup> The waters wear the stones: thou washest away the things which grow out of the dust of the earth; and thou destroyest the hope of man.

<sup>20</sup> Thou prevailest for ever against him, and he passeth: thou changest his countenance, and sendest him away.

<sup>21</sup> His sons come to honour, and he knoweth it not; and they are brought low, but he perceiveth it not of them.

<sup>22</sup> But his flesh upon him shall have pain, and his soul within him shall mourn.
